

Appendix 2. Schematic of Transportation Allocation Process in Referral Network Analyses

All adjusted travel times include a mobilization time, defined in the text as “the time needed to call for transportation, and for that transportation to prepare and depart, and is estimated based on ambulance and communication capacity”. Mobilization time parameters for each scenario are encompassed by parentheses. See Appendix 1 for description of each type of transportation/communication adjustment.